1. Stamp your blooms image in Tuxedo Black Memento Ink. Color in with Real Red & Old Olive Stampin' Blends. Cut out with coordinating dies. Set aside.
2. Cut out frame from the 5 1/2" x 4 1/4" piece of Basic Black cardstock. Emboss the smaller frame using the Damask Designs embossing folder. Set aside.
3. Take your two 3 1/2" x 2 1/4" pieces of basic black cardstock:
 1. line them up with ends touching. The score lines should be on the outside. Place your square die in the middle--so that your cutting out a triangle from the end of each piece.
4. To assemble your card:
 1. Adhere your two shutter mechanisms to the inside of the card. Line up the edge that is scored to the right of the card's fold line, then fold toward the middle. (see pic).
 2. Fold the two ends of your 6" x 3" designer paper piece. DO NOT GLUE YET!! place it over the shutter mechanisms, and tape the circle die where you need it, so that it's over the mechanism. Cut out the circle.
 3. Adhere the 6" x 3" designer paper into your card, over the shutter mechanism.
 4. When card is open, stamp your sentiment in the open space created by the shutter, in Real Red ink.
 5. Adhere your two pieces of Basic Black to the front of the card, then do the same for the designer paper. The designer paper should "meet" in the middle.
 6. Adhere your frame, and carefully cut through where the gatefold opens.
 7. Adhere your Old Olive leaves die to the left side of the opening. Then attach your blooms over that. Remember to only glue on the left side, so that the card will open.
